MICHAEL OKPARA UNIVERSITY OF AGRICULTURE UMUDIKE

COPYRIGHT TRANSFER STATEMENT FORM

This form provides the agreement terms between the author(s) and the publisher of UJET, Michael Okpara University of Agriculture Umudike (hereafter referred to as The Publisher), based on which The Publisher is willing to publish this article. Authors are therefore required to read it carefully before assenting to it. Authors are also required, if they should accept the terms of the agreement, to sign this form digitally in the appropriate field of UJET website.

Authors are required to transfer their rights of copyright of this article to The Publisher. This includes the exclusive right to publish, reproduce, and distribute the article, whether by electronic, print, or online. This also includes the right to modify the article as the editorial board sees fit. This copyright transfer is performed by signing this form, and comes into effect if this article is accepted for publication in UJET.

Authors however retains the right to self-archive their own copy of this article as formatted by themselves on any repository they may choose, especially if it is required by contract. However, authors must allow a period of 12 months before submitting it to such repository if the same is available to the public. On whichever repository they may choose to archive this article, or at any time they wish to use their self-formatted version of this article, they are warranted by this agreement to acknowledge The Publisher as the original publishers, providing the link to the article on UJET website or providing the DOI of the article with UJET.

In signing this form, the author warrants that:

1. The contributions in the work are original, and that this work does not infringe on the copyright of any third party.
2. He/she has the power to make this transfer of copyright and to release this article to The Publisher. The co-authors are in agreement to the transfer of this copyright to The Publisher.
3. For the particular cases where there may be a conflict of interest, probably because the authors do not own the copyright, probably because the work was sponsored by an organization, or that it belong to any or all the authors' employer or client, that the due consent of the copyright owners have been obtained to assign a non-exclusive license to publish this article in UJET to The Publisher. The author further warrants that all sponsors and affiliations to this work have been duly acknowledged as an appendix in the article. Such conflict of interest (the particular case which may apply) is required to be explained as an attachment to this form, with the parties involved very clearly mentioned.
4. He/she warrants that if any litigation arises on account of this article, that the signature below will be accepted as his/her authority, and that it shall be tried in any Court in Umuahia, Abia State of Nigeria.
